Gilbert Farm Video Shoot

One time my aunt told us, she told us about what has happened to her parents. One of her aunts has died, but they had bad feelings towards one another. These two women didn't get along. One of them, the one that died, had promised the other, "If ever I die, I am going to come and get you," she said to this women. Well, she died. They didn't believe her and at the wake, this other woman was there. She suddenly got very scared. She remembered what this woman had promised her. It's her relative. She got very sleepy, but it's still very dark out, here, where they were having their wake. There was another house nearby for anyone to go have a sleep, if you couldn't stay awake. They told her to go there for a sleep. No one went with her so she had to go alone. When she got outside, she let out a very loud holler. Everyone run out to see and there she laid. They brought her in when they looked at her. She had clumps in her hands. So she did come for her. She had come and killed her as promised. I heard about that. My aunt was the one who told this. They say that was true. This has really happened. Yeah. She had heard about it. She didn't see it. She just heard of it. She just heard, so she told us. Well that's where she's from. (Same as the story of the Prairie wolves, only in Michif)
